So sorry to hear of your mom, grandmother passing, we just heard and saw the obituary. We are the family at the end of hatfield. We spent alot of good times with ms. Foster while selling puppies in her front yard as well as just stopping to say hi and checking in on her. As we passed we would blow the horn and no matter what she was doing she would throw up that hand. A really great person she will be truly missed. I know she is in a much better place and we will meet again. God Bless your entire family during this difficult time.

Cathy, I am praying for you and your family. I know God will bless you and see you through your pain. When you start feeling bad, check out Proverbs 3 5-8: 5Trust in the LORD with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding.6In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths.7Be not wise in thine own eyes: fear the LORD, and depart from evil.8It shall be health to thy navel, and marrow to thy bones.May God bless you all.

This woman was the kindest most generous person I have ever had the pleasure of knowing, she is a SAINT. I have never met anyone as humble as her. There is no need to preach this is a absolute fact.

It is with deep sympathy that I send my condolences to the Foster family. May you find comfort in the Lord. The Lord is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer; my God, my strength, in whom I take refuge; my shield, and the horn of my salvation, and my high tower. Psalm 18:2

Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also. John 14:1-3
