Steven King

JAN 12, 2011

Steven King, 56, passed away January 12, 2011. He is survived by his parents, Joseph King and Phyllis Britton; son, Josh King and daughter, Jessie King; sister, Sheila Thomas and her husband Daniel; and nephew, Scott Thomas.

Steve took every opportunity to engage life, not just live it. He enjoyed spending time with good friends and family, traveling, hunting, or scuba diving; he was sure to not let life tick by. As his passing has left us with fond memories of special moments punctuated by his flashy and infectious smile, let us part with a piece of him to incorporate in our own lives: Live Life! He devoted himself so zealously to his interests that he wore himself out, dying an old man only a little past middle age. At the early age of 56, Steve lost his battle with cancer at his home in Pearland, Texas surrounded by his loving family.

Steve could accomplish anything he set his mind to and always appreciated the humor in life. Under a seemingly bullheaded exterior was a patient and loving father. His friends and family will treasure the memories, the joy, and his insatiable passion for life.

Memorial services for Steve will be at on Sunday, January 16, 2011 at 2:00 pm at Clayton Funeral Home at 5530 W. Broadway, Pearland, TX 77581 with Pastor Keith Anderson officiating. The family would like to extend a special thank you to the DuPont family for all their support and kindness.

God bless Jessie and Josh. Steve was a good friend of my husband's and now is with Jim in heaven, happy, healthy and pain free. Steve said he would give Jim a hug for me when he got there. Steve told me Monday that he would have a big smile on his face when he saw Jim. That is what a kind man Steve was. My sons and I are saddened that Steve is no longer here. My prayers are with his family.

Steve was such a nice man. He always seemed to have a smile on his face, and appeared to live life at his fullest. For awhile, he was my neighbor at DuPont, and always kept me laughing. Steve, you will be missed, and your smile will never be forgotten! My deepest sympathy and condolences to his family during these difficult times.
