Phillip served his country as a mail carrier in the U.S. Navy when he enlisted at 16 years old. He was an avid Houston Astros fan and loved all sports. He enjoyed golfing for many years and became quite good and carried a very low handicap. Phillip was a very good provider and loving husband. After losing his first wife Alice in 1991, he volunteered his time at the hospital. It was there that he met and later married Norma in 1993. Their blended family grew and he shared his love with everyone. He was affectionately known as “Jau Jau” to his grandchildren. Phillip loved his family very much and had a wonderful sense of humor and would flirt with all the nurses at the hospital. He loved his little dog “Precious” and always looked forward to their walks together. His family meant everything to him and he made sure everyone knew they were loved. He will be greatly missed by all that knew and loved him.
