Christopher B. Bieber, 51 of Pearland, passed away on September 15, 2010. He is preceded in death by his parents Theodore and MaryAnn Bieber, and brother, Robert Bieber. He is survived by his loving wife of 20 years, Stacey Bieber; son, Ryan Bieber; foster sons, Kyle Lord and Cade Radcliff; sister, Barbara Bieber-Hamby; nephew, Nathan Bieber; niece, Christy Bieber; and a host of many other family and friends.

Chris and Stacey met 25 plus years ago while working in a car dealership in Midland, Texas. Chris was always so nice and eventually won Stacey over. He had a strong love and dedication to his family. Chris enjoyed his job at Natijonal Oilwell Varco and had many friends through his work there. Sailing was a passion he enjoyed for most of his life. He was highly intelligent and an excellent athlete going through school. Chris was an avid reader and loved to read everything from Popular Mechanics to Sailing magazines or even "How-to" manuals. Chris had a very mechanical mind and always wanted to know how things worked. He always enjoyed the annual family vacation to New Braunfels. Chris and Ryan enjoyed spending time floating on the river or riding the rides at Schlitterbahn. His love of the water and the open seas also included going on cruises. His favorite pastime on the ship was going to the engine room to see how things worked or the bridge to see and observe the operations of the ship. He will be dearly missed by all that knew and loved him.

Like Barney its been a long time since I have seen Chris. I grew up in Nassau Bay with Chris. We rebuilt car engines, sailed, raced boats, car pooled to school hundreds of times and played football together. Barney, Chris, Cliff and I lived together at A&M our freshman year. Those were great memories. I never heard a cross word or negative comment come out of Chris's mouth. He was as genuine a friend as you could ask for. I could write much much more about Chris but I will just say that I miss Chris and wish we had one more chance to visit. God bless.

Stacey – Given the amount of time since Chris's death, I'm not sure if this will get to you, but I have to try. I found out today that Chris passed and wanted to offer my prayers. I hope you and your family are making it through the healing process. Chris and I went to high school together, played football together and were room mates at A&M. Although we drifted apart, he was never far from my thoughts. He was a special person, a true friend and will be missed. Peace be with you.
