Brittanie, Little Piero, Lucas and the rest of the family, we send our heartfelt condolences. Although no words seem to relieve the pain, the true testimony to just how much these two young women were loved is shown by the amount of people posting on here, Facebook, videos/slideshows being made, etc. They touched soooo many lives and will be missed tremendously. Kelly and Desirae grew together...with just one house separating our families. It always seemed as if Melissa and I were playing bumper cars because we passed so many times a day on the street shuffling kids to school, practices, etc. They will NEVER be forgotten. How blessed our lives were to call them friends. Your family remains in our thoughts and prayers.
