Bill, Toni, Troy and Barbara:My heartfelt condolences to you and your family members on the loss of Karen.She was a wonderfully friendly and professional co-worker to me and the others at Rimkus. She got along with everyone and never complained or had a bad word to say about anyone.Unfortunately, I will miss attending the visitation or Mass services as I am currently in route to New York City on business Sunday through Wednesday. My wife, Lynne Watters, plans on attending the services in my place.Lynne and I enjoyed visiting with Karen in the hospital three weeks ago and meeting Barbara. It was certainly wonderfully that Barbara could be in Houston with Karen for these last few weeks. I could tell it made a lot of difference to Karen in this trying time of her life.Sincerely,Philip Roy Watters
