Jack J. Snow

JUL 14, 2007

Jack J. Snow, a resident of Pasadena for 62 years, passed away Saturday, July 14, 2007 at his residence at the age of 84 years. Jack was born January 16, 1923 in Montague, Texas to the late Samuel Asbury and Cora Fowler Snow.

Jack proudly served his country in the U. S. Army Air Corps and served in World War II. He was an expeditor by trade and worked for Sinclair and Atlantic-Richfield. Jack was a longtime member of Memorial Baptist Church of Pasadena.

Preceded in death by his beloved wife, Almetia Louise Raspberry Snow, Jack is survived by a loving family; three sons, Jack Snow, Jr., of Pasadena, Doyle Snow and his wife, Mary, of Lake Lotawana, Missouri and Everett Snow and his wife, Yulfa, of Pasadena; twelve grandchildren, seven great-grandchildren, numerous other relatives and a host of dear friends.

The family will receive friends from 6:00 PM to 8:00 PM Thursday, July 19, 2007, at Memorial Baptist Church, 6901 Fairmont Parkway, in Pasadena. A service commemorating Jack's life will be held at 10:00 AM Friday, July 20, 2007, at Memorial Baptist Church of Pasadena with Rev. Blake Lander officiating. Interment will follow at South Park Cemetery in Pearland. Those serving as pallbearers are; Neil Snow, Gary Snow, David Snow, Robert Snow, Heath Snow and Beau Bailey.

For those desiring, memorials may be made in Jack's honor to Memorial Baptist Church of Pasadena or to A-Med Community Hospice, 8901 E. F. Lawry Expressway, Suite B, Texas City, TX 77591.
