Dear Lupe, It's hard to say goodbye, but I want you to know how much you've meant to me. Thank you for sharing your passion for fishing and for guiding me through its many intricacies. You weren't just my brother-in-law; you were the big brother I never had growing up. Your unwavering support for Valerie and the entire family is something I will always cherish. You were truly one of the best fathers and family men I've ever known. No matter the struggles that came your way, you kept moving forward, inspiring all of us to do the same. I'm proud to have known you and to have been a part of your life. Knowing that you are now at peace, leaving this world behind, brings me comfort. You fought against all odds and won eternal life, and for that, I will always be grateful. I will miss you more than words can say, but I can still hear your famous words: "Whatcha doing, Mexican?" Rest in peace, my dear brother-in-law. You will forever hold a special place in my heart. Till we meet again, Shelly (sis-in-law)

Im gonna miss you my friend. You were a great friend and an awesome dad. I remember watching you with your kids. I always had fun hanging out with you, your kids and wife. I'm gonna miss just being able to pick up the phone and talk with you about your favorite football team, the Astros and fishing. I'm happy you're with Valerie now. You were one of my best friends just like a brother. Will miss you, love you bro. 🧑🏻❤️
