Terrence Levon Carruthers

MAR 23, 1967 - JAN 11, 2026

Terrence Levon Carruthers passed away in Houston, Texas, on Sunday, January 11th, 2026, at the age of 58. He is survived by his wife, Liceth (Arias) Carruthers; mother, Kathryne Carruthers; sons, Mekhi Carruthers, Kaelin Mcleod, Martel Carruthers, Colton Carruthers, and Christopher Arias; daughter, Makayla Mendez; brothers, Tramell Carruthers and Trezvon Carter; sister, Tammara Jamerson; and a host of many other family and friends.

Terrence, known as “Mr. Hollywood” by his friends, was a loving husband, father, son, brother, friend, and a 33rd degree Mason. You could always count on Terrence to be there for anyone in need, no matter what the problem was. He was a sportsman who enjoyed playing golf, fishing, and sharing his passion for basketball with his children. Terrence also enjoyed traveling and spending time with his family on vacations. He will be greatly missed by all who knew and loved him.

Funeral services to celebrate Terrence’s life will take place at Clayton Funeral Home of Pearland on Friday, January 23rd, 2026. His family will receive guests during a visitation from 1:00 to 2:00 pm, with the service beginning at 2:00 pm.

Burial at Houston National will be Wednesday at 9:30 a.m.

Terry and I worked together on many rotations as QC Reps for United Airlines. He was a kind soul and always willing to help others. My most memorable time with him was while we were stationed in Puerto Rico. It was a special place where we worked hard but had time to gather with friends to eat and drink, looking out at the ocean thinking how lucky we were to be in this place. Rest in peace friend.
